

DECEMBER 2020

TUESDAY 1

AUSTRIA: David and Linda James in Villach

We had planned a special set of guest services during advent, but now we are suggesting a daily online reflection. Please pray that we would be able to reach people with the Gospel during advent and Christmas. We anticipate that we will not be able to continue with the Teabus ministry before the Spring.

WEDNESDAY 2

ECMI INTERNATIONAL TRUSTEES: Dave Allen, President

Today we are holding an online forum as part of the preparation for the online Extraordinary General Assembly we are planning to hold on the 14 January. The aim is to give opportunity for any members to participate in a discussion about holding this type of meeting and specifically about online voting in general. Please pray that it will be a very useful time and will help to alleviate any concerns that some may have about this method of voting.

THURSDAY 3

ECMI Human Resources

There are currently 12 participants on the Foundations Course which starts today until 11 December. Being online weekly allows a wide variety of people to lead sessions, contribute content and relate their own real-life experiences. Please pray this course will help people to understand their context, adapt to, and overcome challenges. What this course will miss is the personal interaction which is often so vital because some are struggling in their first term of service.

FRIDAY 4

PORTUGAL: Alex Kowalenko in Lisbon

Pray for the current situation with COVID in Portugal. Pray for wisdom for the President, Prime minister, Minister of Health, and Director of Public Health, as they deal with this situation and another lockdown. Pray for opportunities to speak about Jesus in a time when many people are frightened in Portugal. Pray for the thinking and planning for the direction

*For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only
Son, that whoever
believes in him
shall not perish but have eternal life
John 3: 16*

for ECM Portugal, for wisdom both for me, the field council and the members as we plan the questionnaire as we plan the questionnaire and people answers in it early 2021.

SATURDAY 5

NETHERLANDS: Roland and Carolien Smith in Maastricht

We invite you to join in prayer for All Saints International Anglican Church here in Maastricht. The chaplain is nearing retirement and has moved back to New Zealand. This is a good opportunity and impetus for all of us to continue to take part and develop our gifts. We pray that those on the fringe would enter fully into the life of the fellowship. Also, for the process of appointing the next chaplain. Thank you for praying.

SUNDAY 6

PORTUGAL: Eberson and Madalena David in Alentejo

Please pray for our trip to Brazil from 8 to 30 December. Pray for the Church of Montargil, that this would be a time of great spiritual harvests and for the new Youth Ministry there, and for the beginning of our Bible School. May the Lord give us strategies to disciple youth and adolescents.

MONDAY 7

SPAIN: Ron and Brenda Anderson in Camarma

Pray for the Deerings as they transition into a new ministry in Scotland and for us too, that we will know the Lord's leading for the next phase of ministry for the ECM hospitality and ministry centre in Camarma. Ron continues to be involved in the European church planting Platform – NC2P.org. Pray for the next virtual meeting on 8 December with key European leaders. Our aim is to help each other in the development of National Church Planting processes that bring the whole body together to take the whole gospel to the whole nation.

TUESDAY 8

IRELAND: Colin and Ally Holmes in Ferrybank

We give thanks for Colin's recovery of health. From today he will spend a few days in Hospital to further investigate any causes. We have both returned to ministry with our church. Ally hopes to connect with kids and families at Christmas through stories and craft on social media. Colin will focus on teaching and leading worship with church.

WEDNESDAY 9

SPAIN: Delyth Sutton in Pozoblanco

We thank the Lord for a blessed time at Spanish prayer days, with great encouragement from the Word of God. Praise God for growth in our community in the church in Pozoblanco for and that during this time we have been able to help and support each other. In Almadén (35 mins by car) there is now a small group that regularly joins us via zoom. Pray for the young men in that group that do not know the Lord yet and for those in residential homes and can't mix with others, that the Lord would meet with them in a special way this Christmas.

THURSDAY 10

ECMI: Simon Marshall, International Director

Today is our "Mission Statement Workshop". Please pray for us all as we take part together in exploring how our mission statement is worked out in our everyday ministries. Pray for real unity of purpose for us as a mission and that, through our service, Europe may become a place where Jesus is known, loved, and followed.

FRIDAY 11

SERBIA: Branko and Rada Tihojevic in Zajecar

Please pray for daily guidance from the Holy Spirit, especially when meeting people in need. This is the time to keep social distance, but at the same time people want to socialize and be friendly. Pray for people I (Branko) meet when distributing literature in the town. Each person is in a special need and seek advice how to cope in this situation: what to say to a lady whose daughter committed suicide, to elderly man who does not have enough money to live, to a man wanting to save his marriage with two children and for his wife who is 20 years younger than him.

SATURDAY 12

AUSTRIA: Tobias and Esther Giersch in Arriach

We are expecting our second child beginning of April and thank God for this great miracle of a new life beginning. However, on one of the ultrasound examinations, the child was diagnosed with oversized kidneys most likely due to a genetic defect. The good news is that the kidneys are working as expected, but later in life dialysis or even a transplant could become necessary. Please pray with us that, if it is God's will, the baby's kidneys develop normally and the child will be born healthy. Please also pray for strength for us as a family with all the extra examinations now coming up and everything else this diagnosis implies.

SUNDAY 13

ITALY: Richard and Pinuccia Wilson in Trento

We are thankful for God's protection and strengthening as a family, after Pinuccia caught Covid in November. We were quarantined for 18 days, after which we were all tested. Two of our children were positive then, which meant another 2 weeks of quarantine. We survived the month at home, and are thankful for the friends that looked after us, the many people around the world that prayed for us, and that the children were able to keep up with the school work that the teachers sent us.

MONDAY 14

SPAIN: Edgar and Jane Alvarez in Madrid

Please pray for our church's teens, who are probably the group that is suffering the confinement effects the most. While they are used to gadgets, they are struggling with church or youth meeting online. The church project we are involved in Madrid has been in a leadership and vision transition period for around two years now, but the latest return to lockdown is testing all the work done so far. Pray for resilience and patience for members and leadership.

TUESDAY 15

ENGLAND: Stephen and Tabita Bell at Capernwray Bible College

NC2P (National Church planting Processes - Europe) Please pray for this movement, as enthusiastic church planters and church leaders from throughout Europe seek to encourage huge growth. Stephen represents Croatia and is on an advisory board. Pray that God would start many churches and bring many to himself in every European country. Please pray our children Sheona and Joshua can find a new flat in Stuttgart, where they are studying. Praise God for Capernwray Bible College. Pray that we be brought oh, so close to Jesus, and grow.

THURSDAY 17

SPAIN: Honor Perfect in Castellón

Having had increasing problems from my hip over the past 18 months, I had a postponed visit to the surgeon in March which was then finally set for September. A further visit at the end of October finished with a date for a hip replacement today December 17. Please pray that this will happen, that it will be completely successful, and that I will have opportunities with the doctors and nurses to share my faith.

FRIDAY 18

KOSOVO: Gani and Adile Smolica in Peja

We are grateful that we can still meet at our church premises. Because of the Covid safety measures, we will not be able to celebrate Christmas like we did in previous years with a big number of children and guests. Instead, we are planning to visit our neighbours and poor people and bless them with food, medicine, and money for wood for heating. Please pray for a right response towards the Good News of the birth of the Saviour.

SATURDAY 19

ECM BRITAIN: Rachel Gurney, HR Assistant

Despite the upheavals of 2020, we were able to keep one short-termer on the field in Germany throughout the year and sent another short termer to Bulgaria for a month. We thank God for making these plans possible and for the ECM missionaries who have invested in the lives of these women. Please pray for both women as they look ahead and consider where the Lord is leading them in 2021 and beyond.

SUNDAY 20

SLOVENIA: Sebastian and Gloria Forjan in Radovljica

Pray for our church during pandemic that they will grow in God's word and in prayer and that we will stay connected through internet. Praise God for a recent convert. Pray for protection and growth in the Lord.

WEDNESDAY 23

ITALY: Susanne Stoehr in Macherio

Thanks to God for a good exposition on the 5 senses recently. I represented a joyful African boy in the rain and had some good conversations with artists and visitors. My painting for the Fellini exposition went well. Unfortunately, it was postponed due to Covid. Pray for Marzia that the Holy Spirit can show her the significance of the death on the cross of Jesus. Thanks to Emanuela we now have two groups of people working on the book "The stranger on the road to Emmaus" by John R. Cross.

THURSDAY 24

GERMANY: Christian and Kseniya Kooiman in Schwerin

Many men and women who help at the Patchwork Centre are struggling with alcohol and drug addictions. Very often they come for several weeks, have a nice time in a Christian community with a daily structure which is good for them, but then they fall back in their old life and we do not see them for some time. Many bad things happen during that time. Please pray that God would break through this circle, that He would give people power to make a change in their lives. These are some names which you can personally pray for: Peter, Nadine, Thomas, Eckard, Louse, Patrick, and Victor.

SERBIA: Branko and Rada Tihojevic in Zajecar

Pray for Christmas at the time of the Covid pandemic, when we cannot meet in the church. Please pray that we will use every opportunity to sing Christmas songs and read the Bible during our visits to people at their home, explaining to the hosts why the Lord Jesus Christ came 2000 years ago, just for sinners. We are celebrating two dates in Serbia today 25 December in the North of the country and 7 January in the South.

SATURDAY 26

AUSTRIA: David and Linda James in Villach

Having managed the situation well at the start of the crisis in March, the Austrian government has reacted slowly to the second wave and sadly many people were much less willing to follow the appeals and rules they issued. Austria is now very close to a health care crisis and has imposed a stringent lockdown.

SUNDAY 27

SPAIN: David and Samantha Gilkinson in Salou

The young people have been very faithful in coming each week. Understandably they engage much better when in person so please pray for them when they have to meet via Zoom, that they would grow in hunger for spiritual growth, for Biblical knowledge and in passion for sharing Christ with others. Pray for David as he leads the team in discipling these young people.

THURSDAY 31

ECM BRITAIN: Kent Anderson, Director

Tomorrow, the UK will begin to experience the effects of withdrawing from the EU. How this will affect many areas like visas, travel, financial transactions, medical care is still unclear. Please pray for missionaries from the UK working within the EU as they invest time in navigating these changes. Pray that A will understand the gospel as we read it together and that C in London will be encouraged as we meet online. Thanks for God's ongoing concern and care for this world, shown by sending his son to save it.

SATURDAY 2

KOSOVO: Gani and Adile Smolica in Peja

In January, we plan to visit some more people and to revisit those we helped and spoke with before Christmas. Most people around us are Muslim, and it is becoming extremely hard for them to understand and to respond towards the Good news. Adile and I are still praying about having a Sabbatical. Please pray as we have not had one for more than 10 years.

SUNDAY 3

ECM BRITAIN: Annette Bull, Fundraising and Marketing Manager

Only the Lord knows what will happen during 2021, including how the world economy will perform. But as God's the one who provides for us all, pray that he'll again prove faithful in providing for his people and his work. Ask him to meet your needs and those of your church. Ask that he will provide for ECM missionaries through their faithful partners around the globe. And pray that ECM sending offices will have adequate income to serve their missionaries well.

Please pray that Covid is not a stand-in-the-way anymore. Also please pray that people come over to Schwerin-Lankow to join us in our mission. We need a team because the work is getting more. That is a blessing, but also a challenge for our four hands.

Now for the marking of the essays and presentations on various aspects of Global Christian faith. The story is always uplifting!

SATURDAY 23

SPAIN: Ron and Brenda Anderson in Camarma
